

RAMBOUILLET

FOREWORD

This year's annual has been carried out in the theme of Frontier and Indian life. This was chosen because it seems to represent much around our community. The Old Oregon Trail is just a short distance from the very center of our business district. Arrowheads found in our community from time to time bring constant reminder of those red men who first lived in these hills and valleys and loved them. To those first people who lived in this valley, we dedicate this year's Rambouillet.

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of 1938 of C. H. S., Lincoln County, Wyoming, being sound physically and mentally after a fashion, do, make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our final will and testament, having only these few things to dispose of.

We, the class as a whole give to the class of '39 our athletic ability, our leadership, and our example of cooperation.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

After four years of study, work and play the Class of '38 is preparing to embark on the sea of life. As Freshmen, they entertained at a dancing party, two picnics, and a coasting party. As Sophomores they entertained at two picnics. As Juniors, they entertained the Seniors at the Junior-Senior banquet decorated as a circus, and presented "Introducin' Susan," a three-act comedy.

In athletics they have excelled. David Zumbrennen, Gene Birch, Sam Bennion, Roscoe Layland were on the main basketball squad. Ricy Anderson, Sam Bennion, David Zumbrennen, and Marlin Hendricks, were out for track. Both in their Sophomore and Senior year they have taken Inter-class Tournament in basketball.

As Seniors, they gave a Senior Ruff. It was decorated as a Christmas scene. They dramatized "Don't Go West, Go Western," and had an outdoor party up Pine Creek. All during their high-school days they have shown cooperation, sportsmanship, and good-will toward fellow students.

- I, BETTY LOU STONER, will my personality to Maxine Mau.
- I, SAM BENNION, will my basketball suit to Mickey and my interest in C. H. S. girls to those in Kemmerer whom it might concern.
- I, VELDRON JONES, leave my ability in bookkeeping and excursions to Joe Lucero.
- I, RICY ANDERSON, will my tenor voice and constant attendance to Raymond Bailey.
- I, CHARLOTTE WATSON, will my slender figure and dancing ability to Inez Toomer.
- I, DAVID ZUMBRENNEN, will with no pangs of regret, leave my love of school to Mary Ella Stotts.
- I, HELEN EVANS, will free heartedly to Audrey Ineck, my position in the T. N. T. Club.
- I, JACK COCHRAN, will Fern to Hamilton Teichert.
- I, MARLIN HENDRICKS, will with much regret, my time spent in the Band house to Jack Larson.
- I, MARIAN BENNION, leave my trueness to Dale Sparks through-out my high school days, as an example to all fickle girls.
- I, MAXINE NELSON, will my position as cheer leader to Gail Olsen.
- I, GENE BIRCH, will my affection for Nina Z. to some lucky fellow in Weston.
- I, RALPH LANGFORD, will my ability as a farmer to Bob Anderson.
- I, ROSCOE LAYLAND, will my blue Mondays and basketball ability to Samuel Hart.
- I, Neoma Hidalgo, will my art ability to Phyllis Roberts.

BRAVES

With a warwhoop of defiance at the upper classmen the Sophomores entered the high school. They chose Ernest Nicholls as chief, Ruby Bailey as sub chief, Jean Herschi sub chief, Hiroko Kusaba war recorder, Johnny Stocco reporter to The papoose dance was given April 16. Decorations were green and white.

The next year the young braves and squaws elected Bud Julian as chief, Jean Herschi sub chief, Hiroko Kusaba was recorder, Johnny Stocco reporter to the reservation officials and Ruby Bailey as historian.

New members of the tribe were Mary Stotts and Bob Anderson of Sage and Marr Cheney from La Barge, but he found warfare and tribe life too strenuous and quit shortly after he joined.

The dance of peace was given November 5. Several other social events were successfully given and then the members of the tribe left for their summer stamping grounds.

PAPOOSES

We, the green Freshmen, with happy hearts and willing hands, have plunged into the four long years of high school life. With the addition of three boys from Raymond—Henry Evans, Russell Saxton, and Norman Eschler, we have started to tackle the difficult task of acquiring the so-called "high school education."

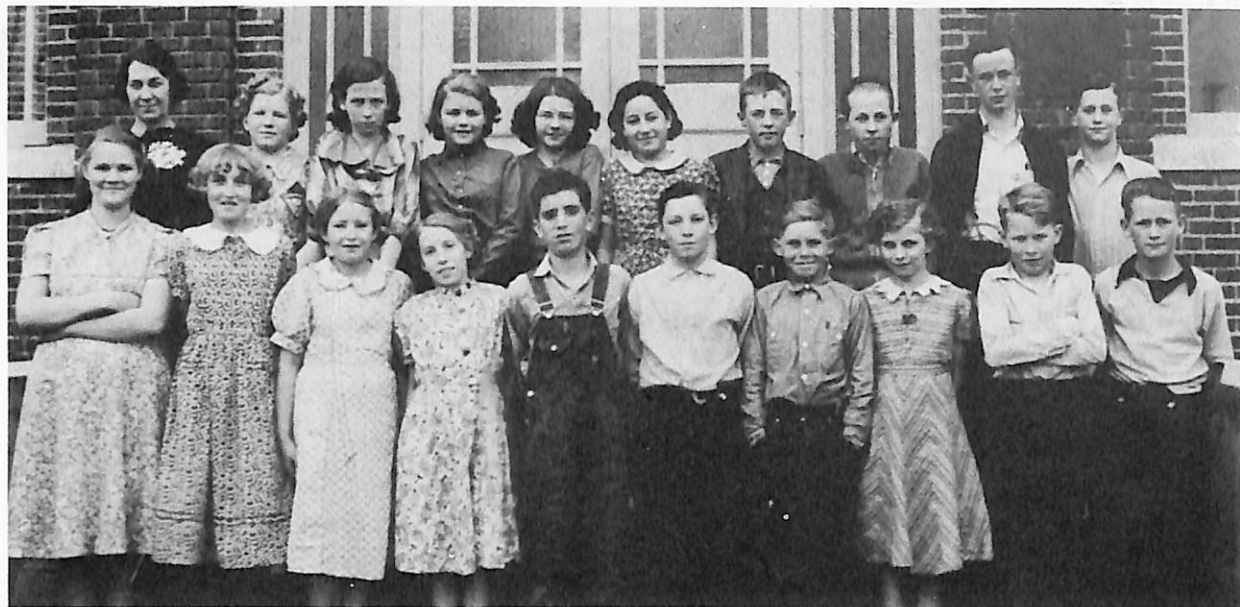

The first event of the year was the election of class officers which resulted as follows: president, Marjorie Bennion; vice-president, Henry Evans; secretary, Mieke Kusaba; treasurer, Dorothy Jean Gennett; reporter, Dorothy Bruce; and class historian, Russell Saxton.

The next event was a much anticipated one—Initiation Day, which took place the first part of November and which made us full-fledged members of the Student Body, although some of us had aching bones and faces sore from too much washing off of paint of all kinds and descriptions. December third marked our first and successful social function, the "Freshman Frolic" which was given in our high school gymnasium.

Our skiing party took place near Big Hill.

Now we are set to finish the remaining three years of high school journey with equal anticipation.

SE-CO CLUB

The Home Economics Club is composed of girls in the Home Economics classes, active members, and all other girls in school who are interested as honorary members.

Maxine Nelson is President, Evelyn Dimick, Vice-President; and Ella Wilde, Secretary-Treasurer. Meetings are held twice a month.

The girls cooked and served the F. F. A. banquet. Several of the club members attended the Home Economics District rally in Evanston where Evelyn Dimick was chosen President of the Southwest District Home Economics Clubs, and Ella Wilde was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

The club has been both interesting and helpful to its members.

"F. F. A."

The Future Farmers of America is Cokeville High School's Agriculture Club. Mickey Bennion was president the first semester and Jack Cochran was president the last semester. The other officers during the last semester were: Ralph Langford, Vice-President; Samuel Hart, Reporter; Raymond Bailey, Secretary; Bud Julian, Treasurer and Dwight Cochran, Farm "Watch Dog."

This club gave a play entitled "When a Fellar Needs a Friend," a three act farce; it also entertained at a banquet, and sent Jack Cochran to Afton to compete in a public speaking contest. Several delegates: Ralph Langford, Jack Cochran, Raymond Bailey, Melvin Bennion, and Melvin Eschler, from the club went to Casper.

Mr. Rallison was sponsor of the F. F. A. Club.

SOCIETY

SOPHOMORE HOP . . .

The Sophomore Hop was given November 5. The gymnasium was decorated in red, white, and blue. Refreshments and a program were enjoyed by all during intermission.

FRESHMEN FROLIC . . .

Gold and Blue was the predominant theme for the Freshman Frolic, December 3, when Cokeville High School was formally introduced to its Freshmen. It became apparent that the Frosh class was not only able to come to a party after a strenuous(?) initiation, but also, knew how to give grand parties.

SENIOR RUFF . . .

The Senior Class gave their annual dance December 18. Gaily decorated Christmas trees adorned the gymnasium. Of course Santa was there to see everyone, and he showered them with snowballs. Music was furnished by the Yellow Jackets of Paris, Idaho. Jack Larson and Charlotte Watson won first place in a fox trot dancing contest; while Byron Martin and Connie Jean Jacobsen won first place in the waltz contest.

F. F. A. BANQUET . . .

The F. F. A. Club gave the first of a series of annual banquets to be given their fathers and mothers, on March 15. Several toasts and speeches were made by various members of the faculty, school board and F. F. A. members. Mr. Rallison served as toastmaster. The delicious dinner was cooked and served by the Home Economics Class. The latter part of the evening was spent in playing games.

T. N. T. BANQUET . . .

The T. N. T. girls gave a buffet supper for the basketball boys, March 24. The theme was that of Bold Bad Pirates. Each guest received a murderous-looking treasure chest which contained his fortune. Bette Lou Stoner, Connie Jacobsen, Maxine Nelson, and Charlotte Watson gave a pirate dance. After delightful refreshments were served buffet style from a long serving table, the rest of the evening was spent in playing games and dancing.

JUNIOR PROM . . .

The Annual Junior Prom was given on April 30. It was carried out in the Mother Goose decoration theme, with bright-colored nursery rhyme characters six feet tall. A highly entertaining program and refreshments were enjoyed during intermission. Music was furnished by the Melody Dance Band of Montpelier, Idaho.

T. N. T. CLUB

The purpose of the T. N. T. Club is to sponsor all sports. During the year 1937-38 this club was very successful. A large yelling section at all games was composed of T. N. T. members. An outstanding achievement by the club was the Basketball Buffet Supper, which they gave in honor of the basketball boys.

Helen Evans was president; Jean Herschi vice-president, Marjorie Bennion secretary-treasurer, and Doris Evans historian. Maxine Nelson, Betty Lou Stoner, Charlotte Watson, and Connie Jean Jacobsen were yell leaders and Miss Dorothy Smalley was sponsor.

C. CLUB

The club that devotes itself to the futhering of all athletics, making its members those boys who have received a letter in any sport, is the C Club. The C Club has been very active since its organization last fall. Sam Bennion was elected president, Marlin Hendricks vice-president, Melvin Bennion secretary, Gene Birch treasurer, and Roscoe Layland reporter. Mr. Boyd is sponsor. All Faculty men are members.

Hall of Fame

We shall remember:

Mary Erramouspe for her questions.

Audrey Ineck for her weakness for Love Bugs and front-door Romeos.

Beverly Berrier for her "comeback."

Inez Toomer for her attempt at a "Simone Simon" pout.

Sam Hart for his "Platinum Blonde Hair."

Birds of a feather flock together so do our English teachers.

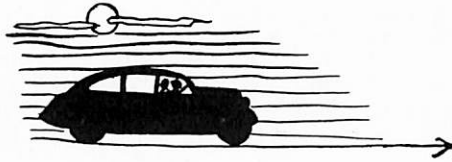

Raymond Bailey as the "Speed Demon."

Rose Branson for her likeness to a rose.

Marian and her way with the babies.

Who are the smiles for?

L. L. Bender for his "hitch" at his pants.

Mr. MacFarlane for his interest in Marjorie.

Ella for her Wilde ideas.

Charlotte Watson and her Perk.

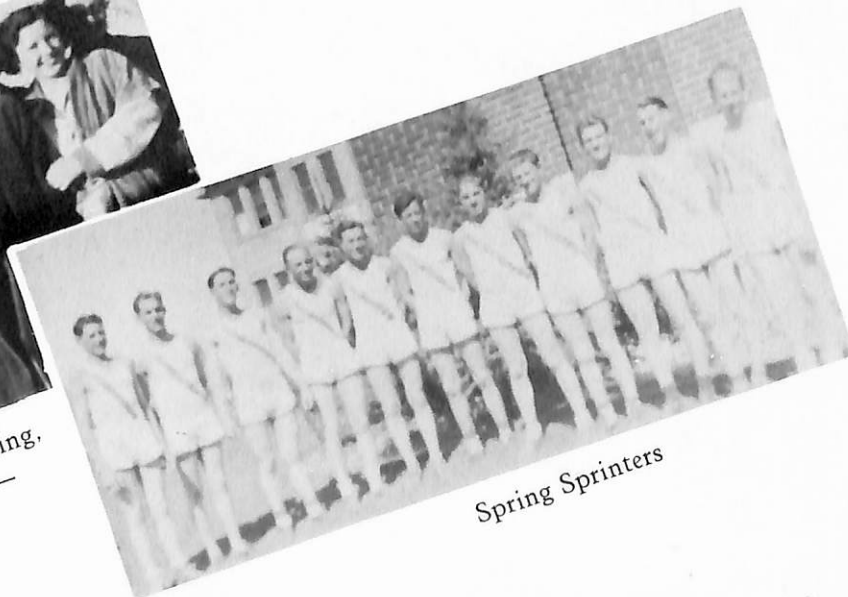

A well known smile.

The T. N. T. Club for their one hundred per cent attendance at the basketball Buffet Supper.

The bandhouse as the Utopia of the "tired schoolboy."

Pretty good looking, considering—
