SENIOR PROPHECY

The Class of 1960 are enjoying a big feed - (hamburger capsules and dehydrated soda pop) - and as is natural gossiping - " and did you hear Glen Alley's radio program last night? Oh, yes, he's solving domestic problems over the air you know. His advice on writing love letters is pretty good too.-----La Fond Pope graduated the same year didn't she? She's teaching atomic chemistry at some big university--keeps her students bored stiff but makes good money.-----Speaking of money, they tell me that both Patricia and Pauline Layland married millionaires. -----And you remember Nappy Fuller. He's running for congress on the Republican ticket, should make a good senator too. -----Donnella Buckley is really a credit to our community. She and her husband are rearing a lot of little citizens. Nine, last count, wasn't it?-----Have you seen DeNina Hayes' latest painting? It's appearing as the latest Lucky Strike Ad. She surely has talent. -----John Tiechert is moving back to town to go back in- to to the ranching business. After he completely revolutionized the mathematics systems there was such a paper and pencil shortage that he was forced to resign his position at the University.-----Delmar Thoman really has made a name for himself in the aviation feild. He's just completed a record breaking flight around the world.----- They say that the party given by the former Miss Patty Gardner was one of the biggest and most chic affairs of the season. It was to celebrate her tenth wedding anniversary. My but they make a cute couple. -----I saw Mayor Whitney from Border the other day.."Ike" they called him when he was in school. Very nice fellow, aside from his official duties he has a little chicken farm in the suburbs.-----Dorcus Cozzens has given up her career as an opera star to marry; isn't that silly? -----Ronald Thompson is supposed to own some of the countries finest racing stock. He plans to enter his fastest two-year old in the Kentucky Derby next year. -----Gee, I wonder what we'll be doing in 15 or 20 years.

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of 1946 of Cokeville High School, city of Cokeville, county of Lincoln, State of Wyoming, being perfectly sound physically, and either mentally alert or good enough bluffers to get diplomas any way, do declare this to be our last will and testament.

We, the seniors, notwithstanding the empty feeling in the pits of our stomachs, do hereby bestow upon the Junior Class, our studious ambitions, our initiative, our cooperative spirit and our appetite for hamburger.

- I, Glen Alley, will my ability to acquire interesting correspondents to Joe Buckley.
- I, Donella Buckley will my cheerful disposition to Beverly Mackey.
- I, Dorcus Cozzens, will my dependability to Eddie Dayton.
- I, Joe Fuller III, will my interest in politics to Ernest Jackson.
- I, Pat Gardner, will my many love affairs to Donna Saxton.
- I, DeLina Hayes, will my artistic aptness to Buddy Lund.
- I, Pauline Layland, will my stream lined structure to Joy Nuttall.
- I, Patricia Layland, will my soprano voice to Gilbert Perkins.
- I, La Fond Pope, will the reticent natures I have previously inherited to Patsy Lund.
- I, Johnny Teichert, will my appetite to Beverly Julian.
- I, Delmar Thoman, will my ability to comprehend Spanish to Delbert Rentfro.
- I, Ronald Thompson, will my athletic stature to Clive Pope.
- I, Clavin Whitney, will my love of Shakespeare to Everett Peterson.

PANTHERS -- DISTRICT AND STATE CHAMPIONS

The Cokeville Panthers, after having taken several losses early in the season came through beautifully to win every tournament bout and capture the district title. Captain Glen Alley and Delmar Thoman were chosen on the all-tourney Senior team.

Representing the South West District at State in Laramie, they again played splendid ball and brought home the championship trophy. Glen Alley was chosen on the all state team and John Teichert came through with an honorable mention.

The Pre-Tourney scores run up by the Cokeville Panthers were as follows, giving us a percentage of .727 and placing us fourth in the Southwest District Bracket.
