Cokeville, Wyoming

We, the class of 1952 of the Cokeville High School, County of Lincoln, State of Wyoming, being perfectly sound physically and almost mentally, do make, ordain, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

We, the class of 1952, feel ourselves to be perfect in cooperations (sic), and outstanding friendship towards our classmates, do will these virtues to the Junior Class, with the hope they will try hard to reach our high level.

I, Audrey Buckley will my blush to Janet Nebeker.

I, Donald Coziah will my acting ability to Jimmy Martinez.

I, Clyne Curtis will my ability to squeeze good grades out of Mr. Carpenter to Terry Robinson.

I, Dean Dayton will my ability to get excused from classes to Don Roberts.

I, Dorothy Lee Dayton will my hair to Grace Morris.

I, Mary Rose Herrera will my little feet to Claudia Netherly.

I, Billy Jay Holmes, with no pang of regret, will my love of school To Eddie Herrera.

I, Lou Ann Jarrett will my streamlined figure to Lorrene Taylor.

I, Ellen Julian will my temper to Afton Buckley.

I, James Saxton will my quietness to Myles Miller.

To the rest of the school and faculty we just leave, and will they thank God.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and seal this 12th day of December, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nineteen Hundred and Fifty One.

19 PROPHECY 52

DONALD: You know, since we joined this gypsy outfit we sure travel from town to town.

CLYNE: Yea. And say! Do you know something? Our next stop is Cokeville and I've got a keen idea. Lets go up to old C.H.S. when we get there and see if we can find out where the rest of the graduating class is. You know its been twenty years last May since we graduated.

DONALD: Yea, and I feel it too. Sure, lets go up and see what the rest of the kids are doing. We're only gypsies, but.....

CLYNE: Good idea. Well let's patch up these old rags and see what we can find out.

LATER AT C.H.S.

DONALD: Sure was nice of Mr. Carpenter to give me this list of the kids and what they do and where they live.

CLYNE: Er, read it to me. I seem to have forgotten my glasses.

DONALD: Lou Ann is a big T. V. star in New York. She is also Thinking about settling down with some guy named Miller and raising little T.V. stars.

It says here that Billy has a big sheep ranch. He still drives that old 1921 Chev although he has millions.

CLYNE: Do tell.

DONALD: Ellen Julian is still chasing back and forth to Randolph hopefully. She works in the bank at Kemmerer in between trips.

It says that James Saxton is a big rancher out at Raymond. He is still single but is reported to be weakening slowly.

Rosie is an attendant in a zoo where she feeds squirrels and other rodents.

CLYNE: Poor Rosie.

DONALD: It says here that Dorothy Lee followed some big band around until the leader finally took pity on her and married her.

CLYNE: She ought to be satisfied.

DONALD: Audrey Buckley is a cost accountant for some big insurance firm back east. She specializes in expense accounts of the wealthy bachelors.

CLYNE: She would.

DONALD: Poor Dean Dayton.

CLYNE: What happened to him?

DONALD: Just listen to this: He was the Conductor of the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra, and he went broke buying Buicks. So then he gathered up an all girl orchestra and is touring the countryside to gather funds so he can buy more Buicks. It says he plays at Pegram tonight and out at Sage tomorrow night.

CLYNE: Is that all?

DONALD: Yep. Say, we had better get the heck out of here if we are going to catch that freight to Kemmerer.

CLYNE: Yep. Well, so long Cokeville, see you in another twenty years.

19 HISTORY 52

Thirteen ambitious Freshmen climbed aboard the C.H.S. "48" which was piloted by Audrey Buckley. The engines roared and we took off. We dropped 1000 feet. An air pocket? No; initiation. We made a decided gain in altitude with our first dance, the Freshman Frolic, and with our Freshman Assembly.

With our new pilot Dean Dayton, we sailed smoothly into the Sophomore Clouds. Through an opening we saw a little bit of "My Blue Heaven," and thus formulated the theme for our Sophomore Dance.

Before us loomed a huge range of mountains known as the Junior Range. Virginia Perkins took over the controls on the third lap of our journey. While flying over California, Glen Cozens and Harold Lundy bailed out, thus diminishing the crew to eleven. Flying over Pointer College we noticed an older woman talking to a professor. Is she a student? Yes, "Mother is a Freshman," and our play by the same name was an outstanding hit. While detouring a storm we came upon "Blue Hawaii" with its palm trees, coconuts, and colorful sunsets. We were so impressed we immediately created a miniature "Blue Hawaii" for our Junior Prom. Following the Prom the crew played host to the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet. Reminiscing, we thought of our flight over Arkansas and decided it would be fun to imitate the hillbillies for our second Junior Play, "Mountain Justice."

The motors were warming while the crew collected for our last flight together. Here Virginia Perkins changed planes for her flight to Oregon and Donald Coziah took over the responsibility of our last trip. We all liked night flying which inspired us to call our Senior Prom "The Loveliest Night of the Year." Flying serenely along we climaxed our Senior Year with that awful, horrifying, death defying "Drums of Death." This was perhaps one of our greatest accomplishments. Veteran play goers of Cokeville unhesitatingly proclaimed it to be the finest high school production they had ever seen.

Our plane now the C.H.S. "52" had reached its destination with eleven of the original crew. Even though we were through flying together we pledged to keep right on flying upward alone.
