Chorus gets new outfits

This year the chorus tried to see what they could do to add a little more class to their group by dressing up a little. The girls made long, blue dresses and the boys got dark blue shirts and pants. They also did more singing this year other than the regular winter and spring concerts. They sang for the Lions Club and also a group of the chorus members went to interschool clinic in Lyman.

LEADING COUNCIL

Mr. Dayton does all he can to make our school a success.

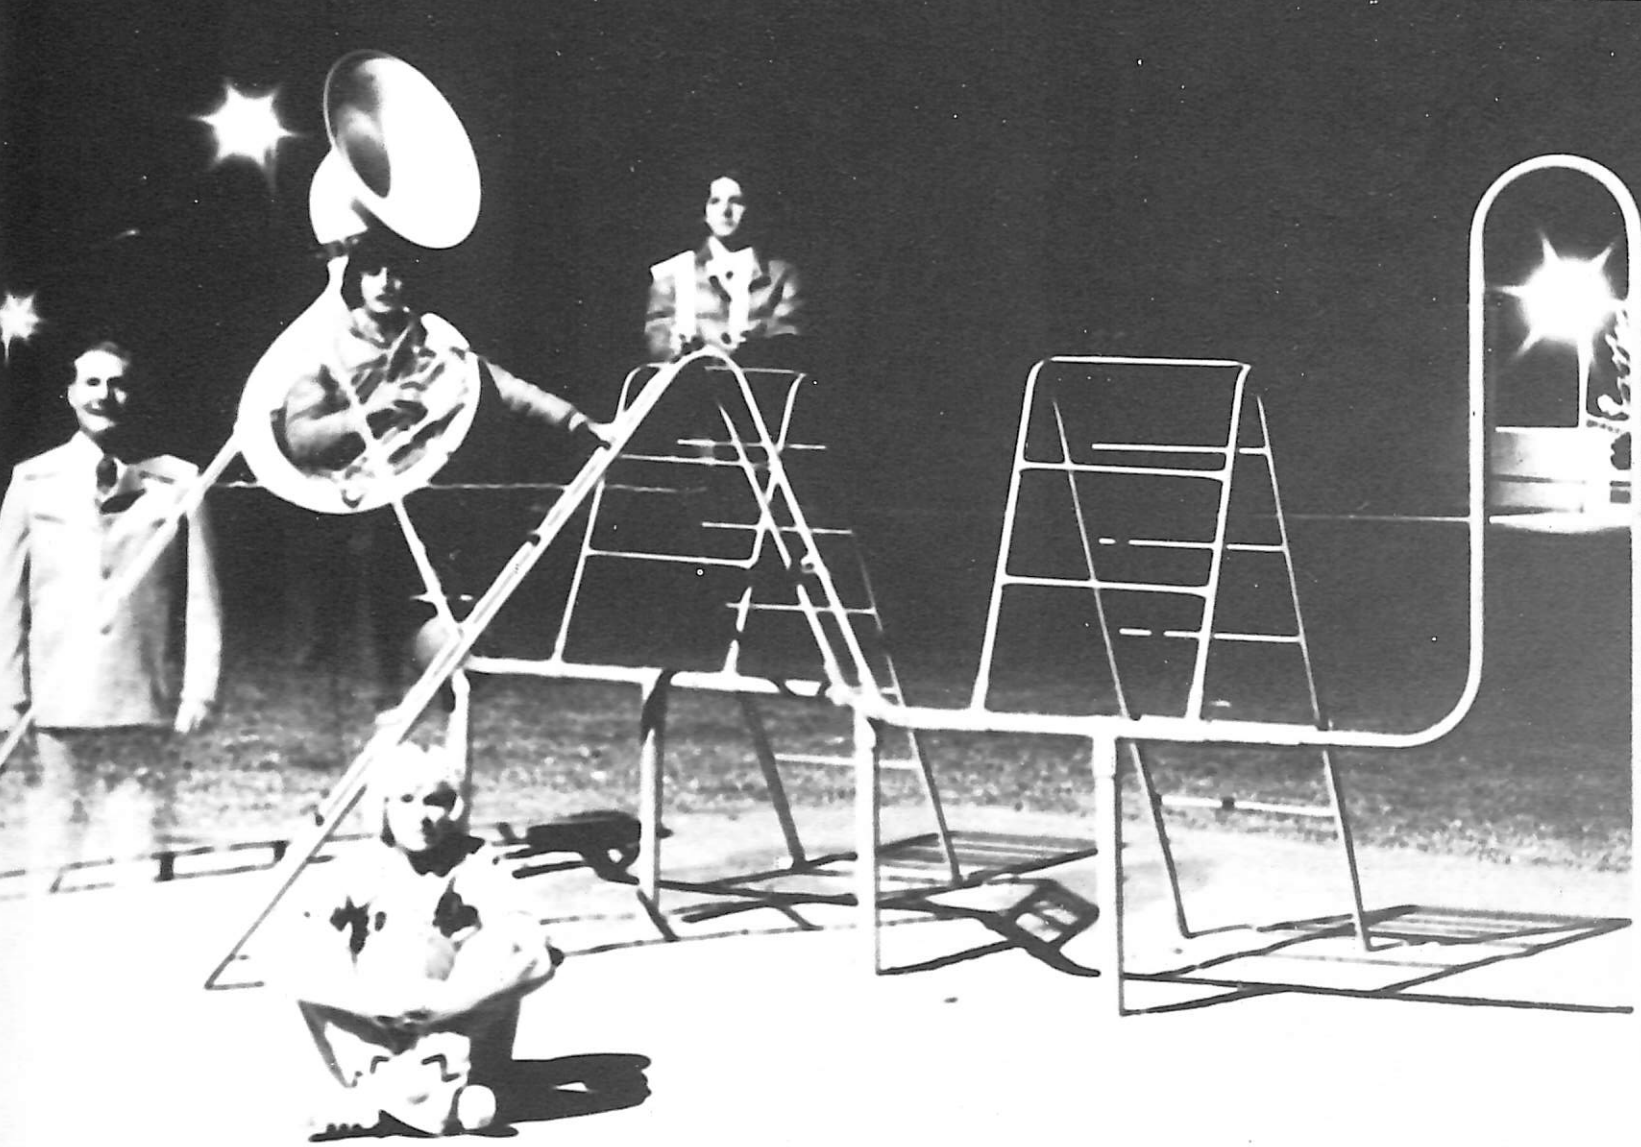

Wayne Petersen, President; Stewart Petersen, Vice President; Kim Burton, Secretary; and class representatives work successfully.

Betty Rentfro works diligently to keep the school record in order.

SPORTS

PANTHER FOOTBALL

The Panther football season ended in both success and disappointment. We were in a 3-way tie with Lyman and Pinedale for district championship. The voting of the conference teams chose Lyman to represent our conference at State. We feel our Panthers did a great job and we are proud of them.

TRACK TEAM PLACES FIRST AT DISTRICT

Even though there were only eight boys out for track this year, they worked hard and came home from district track with the first place trophy. Every boy on the team qualified to attend the state meet at Gillete. Mark Neumann received the trackster of the year award. He placed first in five events and second in two events at the district meet. He also placed in two events at state. Congratulations to all the track team of 1977.

ACTIVITIES

Seniors actually sneak

The class of '77 had a great time on their Senior Sneak. Instead of the usual one day "sneak" to Salt Lake they were excused three days and camped in Yellowstone National Park. Decorated in maroon and pink to the theme of "Storybook Lovers" the Senior Ball turned out to be really successful. The Senior class also went to Provo for three days to the B.Y.U. library to work on research papers. Also for a money making project they had many record hops after athletic events.

The Juniors had a most successful prom with Southbound as an orchestra to play a concert and the dance. The Monday following the dance they were hosts to the Seniors and their parents at the annual Jr., Sr. Banquet. They had one class party and several money making projects. With all the experience they received during the year, they are well on their way to making their Senior year the best of all.
