CHS Is . . .

A place to learn
Where you're given the key
Of the huge door of life
To use most successfully.

A place to compete
In front of the crowd
To take home that trophy
That makes you so proud.

A place to get together
With old friends and new.
Where you can be popular
By just being you.

A place to create
To develop and use
The very special talents
That you alone can choose.

A place to excel
To be number one
Go right to the top
As the panthers have done.

A place to remember

Administration Sets New Policies

3

Much to the students' relief, the policy forbidding students to use their cars or leave the campus during school was repealed. While that seemed to be a victory, administration cracked down on the tardies, issuing yet another policy. In an attempt to solidify scheduling, the administration and faculty set up a policy putting into effect a universal class schedule to be used several years in a row.

Fine Arts

The band took a superior rating while the choir received an excellent. Before John Miller, Sid Stevens taught band and choir. The switch of teachers at semester time caused some confusion, which was quickly resolved. Under the direction of Mr. Miller, the choir sang at the award's assembly, Relief Society dinner, church, and a concert.

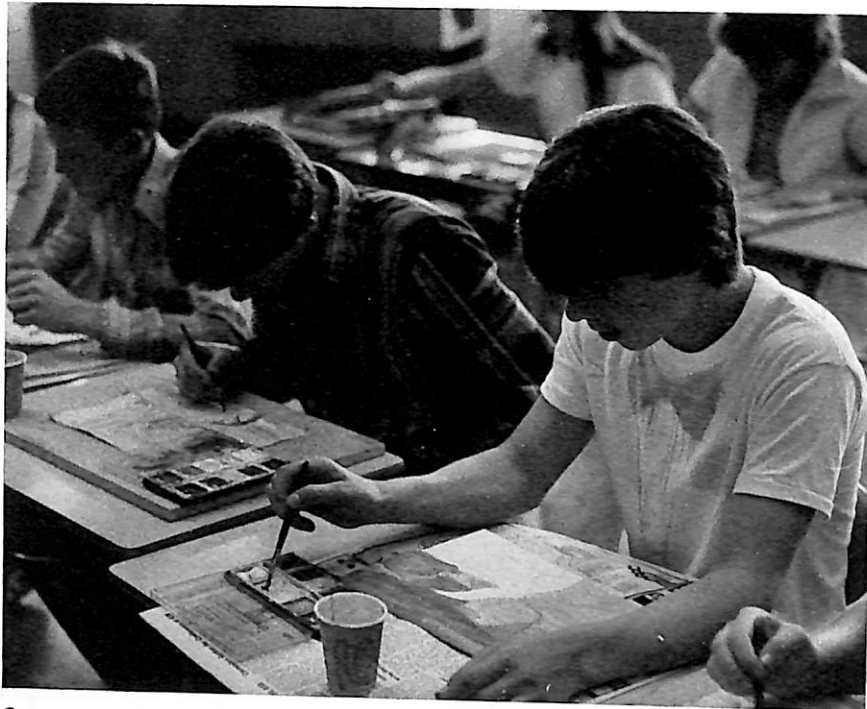

Kumeroa Chournos lead the newly founded art department. The class's first project was the backdrop for "Fiddler." They also drew, painted, and built match houses.

Boys P.E. had the same teacher as last year, after all it wouldn't be the same without coach Johnson.

PANTHERS TAKE STATE

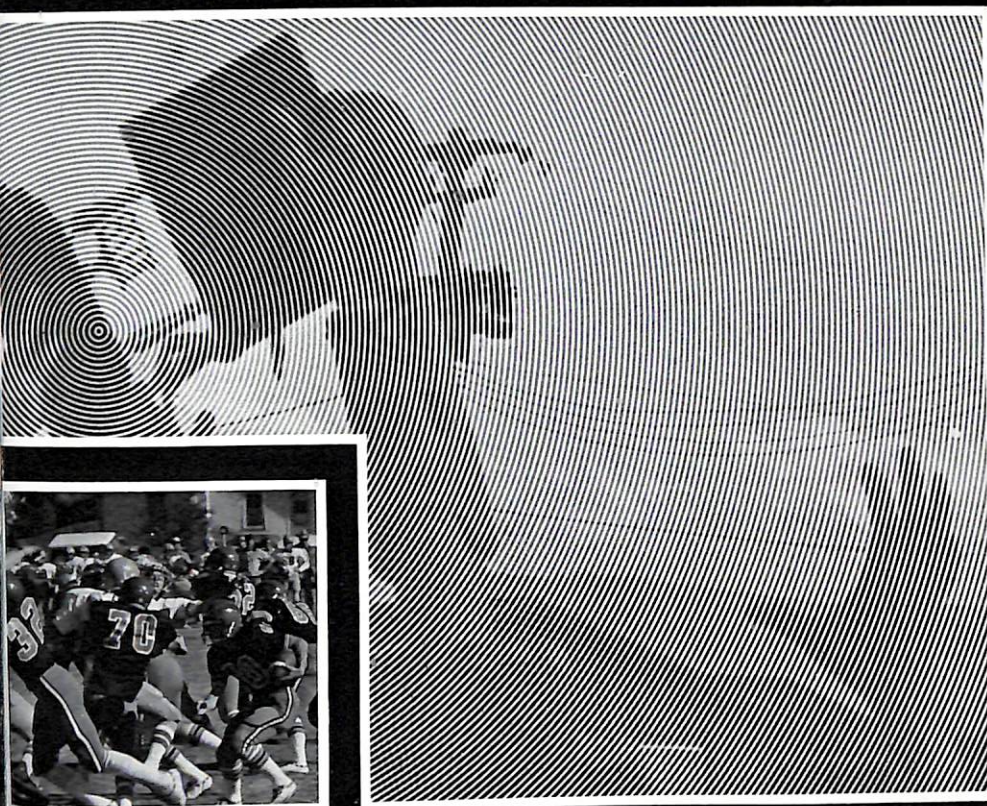

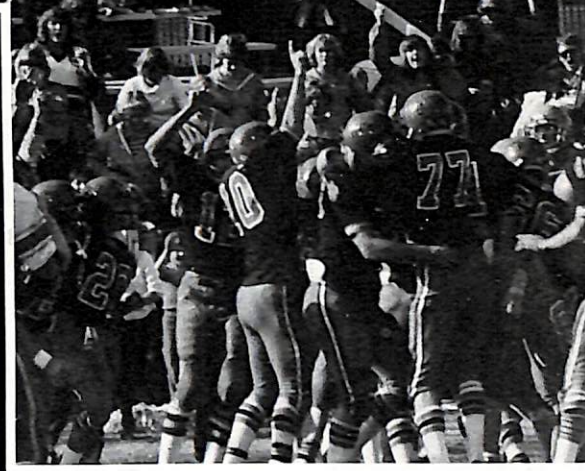

The football Panthers grabbed CHS's first true state championship, playing on the best field in the state, ours. Coach Mitchell coined a new phrase that became a cheer, a trademark, and finally a legend. "Rage" and "rage on" became synonymous with "Cokeville Panthers." All over the state, people began to see why.

Homecoming came to the tune of "Somethin' Special," a song the cheerleaders got at camp. The traditional parade, alumni program, and dance all were tremendously successful

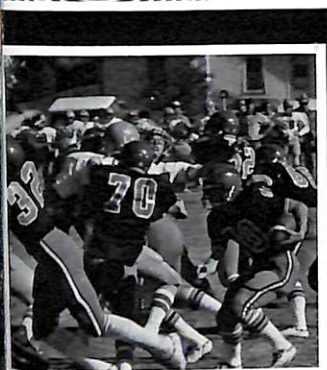

Don Toomer and Morrell McKinnon, the co-captains, displayed true leadership abilities on the practice field, as well as in the games. Their fine efforts helped to make 1978 Panther football really "Somethin' Special."

Cokeville's fame spread as the team from Southwest B that the press had underestimated. No one dreamed CHS would capture the trophy—no one but Cokeville and all of Southwest B. Coach Johnson's efforts were complimented by being named Wyoming's Coach of the Year and accepting a position on the Shrine Bowl coaching staff. Nineteen seventy-eight will long be associated with Coach Ralph Johnson, Cokeville "rage," and winning, because We Are the Champions.

ANOTHER STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

As the state tournament progressed, it looked as if another of Coach Johnson's teams would capture the state championship. But it was not to be. The Panthers were defeated by Goshen Hole in a close game. The team finished the season with an outstanding overall record of 19—4.

In previous years, the girls have been coached by the girls' P.E. teachers, but this year coach Ralph Johnson took over the girls basketball team. Although the girls record, 6-14, does not seem good, most of their losses were by just a couple of points. The girls did not win many games, but we are proud of their effort put forth in all those close games.

Panthers Make Tracks

Since last year's State Track Meet was postponed until after school was out for the summer, we were unable to cover it in the yearbook. Therefore, it should be mentioned here that last year's team won the Class C State Championship, breaking several records in the process. This year's team won the district championship for the 6th straight year but took a disappointing 4th place at the state meet. Although it was the girls first year in track, they did exceptionally well. They placed 3rd at the district meet and four qualified for state.

The enthusiasm of the cheerleaders was felt deeply. They spirited the teams on to victory and were always there to give the Panthers support. The Pep club has given a lot of pep to our teams. They sponsored the Homecoming dance and sold concessions at all the games. They also supported the basketball team by traveling to Laramie for State Basketball Tournament.

Second musical is a big success

The Cokeville High School Music and Drama Department has done it again. The musical production Fiddler on the Roof was attempted this year and as last year's production, Oklahoma it was a big success. Many students had the opportunity to learn different styles of dancing and singing. Although this year's musical was not taken on tour, the home audience was very receptive and thought it was superb.
