The Deafening Sound of Silence

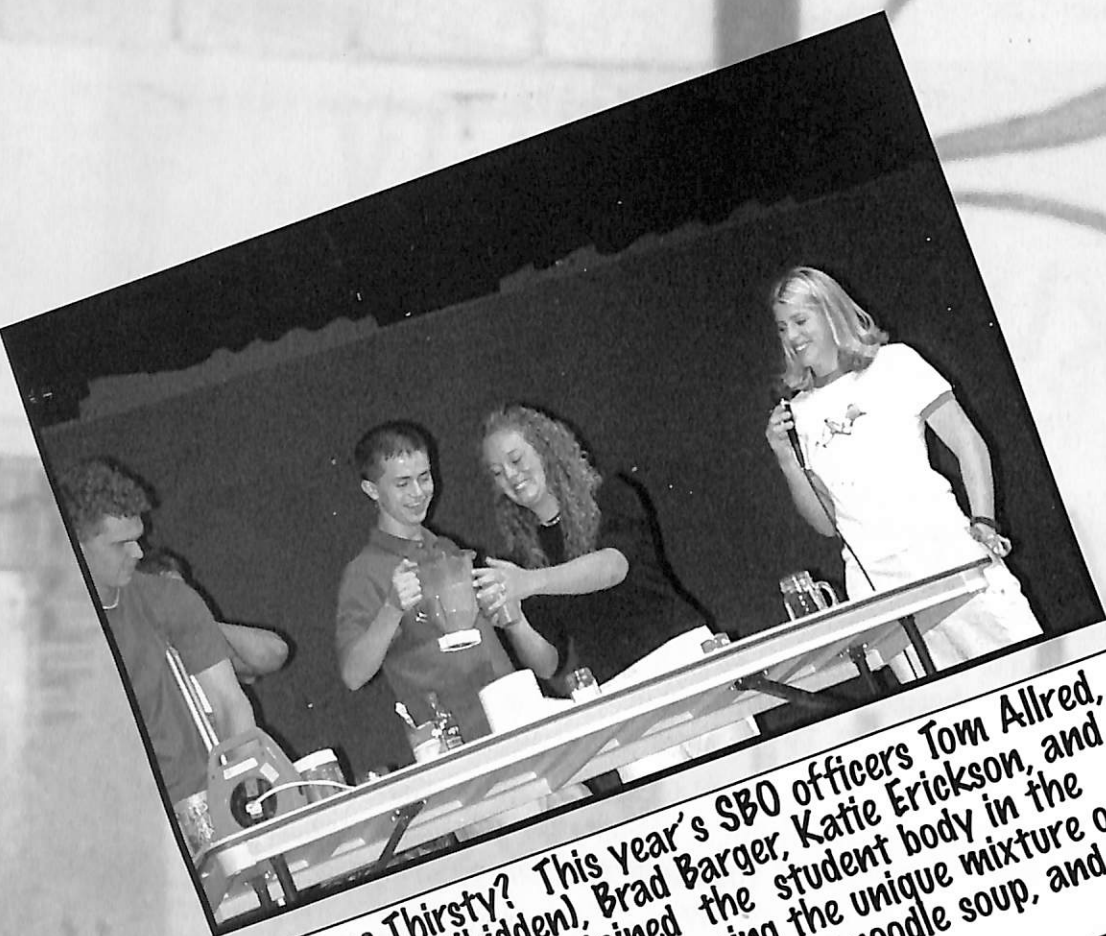

With Monday comes a new week and new possibilities. A chance to become what you've always wanted. To do more, to be more... But too soon it's Friday, and there are no more chances. The week is over, never to come again. What have you done? What have you become?

Week after week of seemingly no change. But there had to have been change. Otherwise, how did you become what you are now? You never saw the change-nobody did. But it happened, so slowly...

Weeks are what make our lives. Sure, there are significant events and ventures, but really, just the weekly things that seem to be done over and over again are what shape our lives and mold our character.

As high school students, we think in weeks. It's the way things happen: "Spirit Week", "State Weekend", whatever. You will discover as you browse through this book that we have laid everything out in a weekly chronological order. Starting with the first week of school, we've recorded the thoughts, statements, voices, opinions, conversation, and expressions of students. In this book of memories we have captured some of the attitude and jargon of the year 2001. I hope you'll treasure this yearbook!

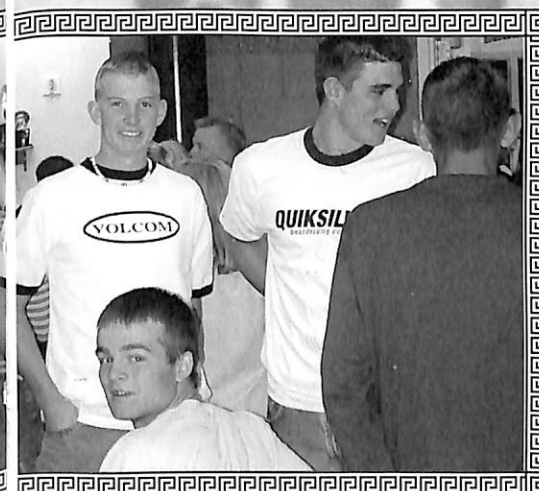

Anyone Thirsty? This year's SBO officers Tom Allred, Colby Clark (hidden), Brad Barger, Katie Erickson, and Becky Hoopes entertained the student body in the first day assembly by chugging the unique mixture of sushi, tuna, all sport, chili, chicken noodle soup, and rotten cabbage.

BACK IN THE GROOVE... THE SCHOOL YEAR STARTED WITH "MIXED" EMOTIONS. DURING THE ASSEMBLY, THE SBO OFFICERS WERE EXCITED TO BE BACK AND JUMP RIGHT INTO THE SCHOOL YEAR. HOWEVER, THE TRADITION OF DRINKING AND ADDING TO THE ALIEN CONCOCTION SEEMED TO COME WAY TOO SOON FOR ALL OF THEM! THE CHEERLEADERS GENERATED SOME FRESH SCHOOL SPIRIT, AND THE BRAVE CADETTE WERE BACK IN ALL THEIR GLORY!

Getting reacquainted...

Jeff Hiner, David Hokanson, Ty Titensor, Shane Owens, Raleigh Scott, Jayce Peavler, and Austin Woody get caught actually smiling on the first day.

"It's always weird comin' back to school after the summer break."

THESE JUNIOR GIRLS KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON!

How was YOUR first day of high school-do you remember? The freshmen all seemed to agree that it was a lot of fun, if a little stressful and a little scary. For the sophomores and upperclassmen, however, it was all confidence. The selfassurdness of someone who knows all.

HUH? While Eli Cox gets distracted, Alex Tippetts takes advantage of the situation and steals an answer.

Wow, only the second week of school, and already markers were drying up and classroom appliances were breaking down. But, thankfully, the senior boys were always ready to lend a helping hand, and only imply in passing that "we have a $27 million dollar school and we can't even afford a decent marker!" As Mrs. Robinson would say, "What's up with that?" The football players lost their first home game of the season to Rock Springs. Would this be a fore shadow of the rest of the season, or just a fluke? Only time would tell.

At the end of the week, the volleyball players played Kemmerer. I can't say it was exactly challenging as many of you may recall, Kemmerer is pretty weak in that area. But they gave the girls a pretty good game, the final score being 15- and 15- , vs.
The opening dance was labled by some, "one of the funnest dances they had ever been to!" However, it landed a spot on the Mountain Star newspaper in an article written by Jenny Goggle, vocalizing opinions of the new fad of "grinding".

By the third week, school was in full swing. The teachers started getting past all the boring "first of school" stuff and getting to the good part, such as labs in science,
skits in Drama, ect.
For 14 extremely talented girls, the date Sep.16 will forever be a special time and bring back wonderful memories. If you're not acquainted with Junior Miss, this was the date of the long-awaited pageant. These girls performed in front of hundreds of people, each girl doing an amazing job. Man, the judges must've had a hard time.

~Determining expression~
~Expressing determination~

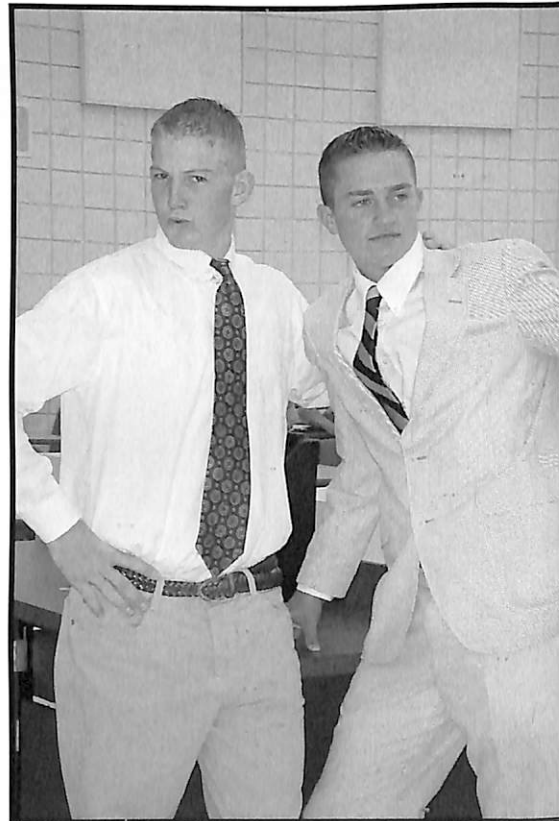

Casey Parker, a school store worker, retrieves some goodies for a potential buyer.

High school is all about expressing yourself. SVHS students had this technique down pat this year, whether it was the way they dressed (example tie-died), or the way they showed their loyalty to friends. SVHS had several different opportunities available for students to express themselves: sports, art, music, speech, drama, and publications (newspaper and yearbook).

Caught by the camera!! Molly Dean and her hun Clayton Tyler steal a quick squeeze in the hall between classes!!! Perfect for each other!!!

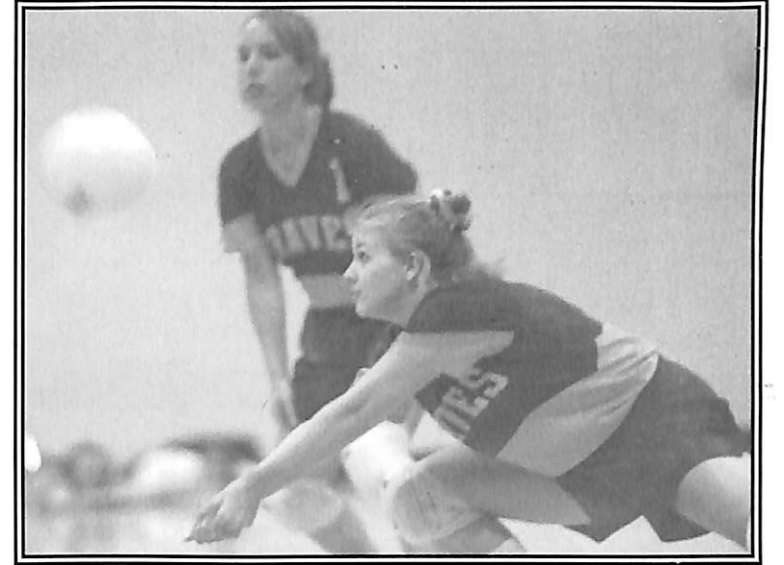

Raleigh Scott and Rob Erickson are posing their sexy stuff in the cafeteria!!! Dressing up for sports at SVHS is a pretty common sight!!!

Megan Porter and Jennifer Scherbel are some of the coolest freshman around this year

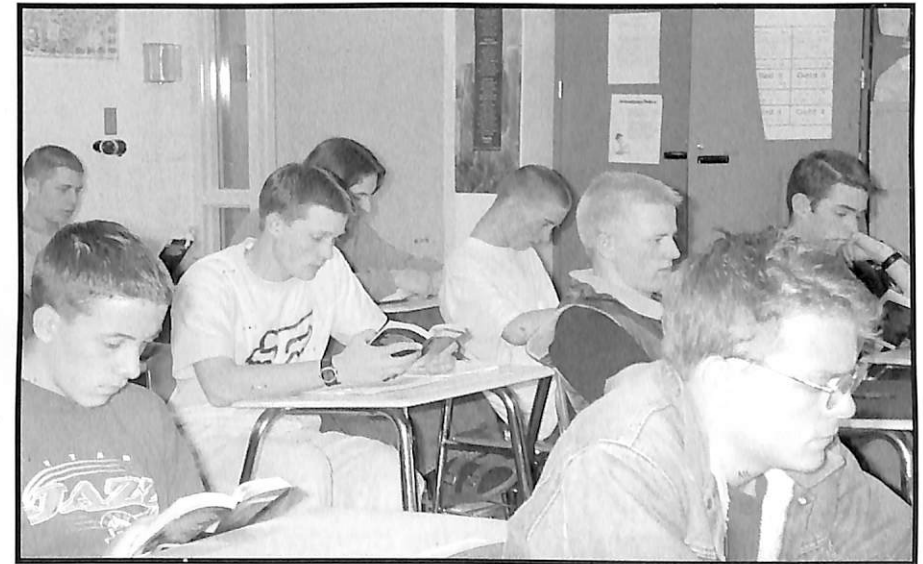

The golf team has a tradition every year as they head to state. At the continental divide, they drive golf balls to see who can hit closest to the mountains.

Sharla Stauffer, Heather Hyde, and Kenna Porter dazzle us with their pearly white smiles! You will never see one without the other two! These chicks are friends for life!

Senior Kellie Scherbel digs a spike from Kemmerer team. Kel said, "It takes a lot of dedication and determination to demonstrate skill out on the game court, as well as at practice."

"Learning is finding out what you already know, doing is demonstrating that you know it. Teaching is reminding others that they know just as much as you. You are all learners, doers, and teachers." -Richard Bach

Day 2

FUR AND FEATHERS... Another dress-up day involving all creatures great and small.

Day 4

PREPARING FOR THE FESTIVITIES... The Junior fans work on their prize winning float.

SPITIT WEEK! Never a better week! Everyday was a dress-up day, with a prize at lunch for the girl and boy with the best outfit. There was some pretty "interesting" apparel-especially on 80's day! The Juniors won the prize for best float in the parade. They were barbecuing an upside-down horse (made of tissue) and hung a colossal banner "Grill the Broncs!"

The Olympics! Who would have thought that some farm boy from Star Valley could cause such an upset? Well that's what happened! Rulon Gardener, former SVHS student, beat Alexander Karelin, "The Russian Bear". This invincible giant from Russia hadn't been beaten for 13 years! What's more, throughout the months of talk shows, assemblies, and parades, Rulon continually showed his complete humbleness, even crying at times.

DEBATE WIDE

Standing strong... Mr. Barrow and Mr. Bayorick are a couple of the people who voted for Gore for the presidential debate of 2000.

Oh boy, the week we were all anticipating... who would get the vote? Al Gore put up the fight of his life-demanding recounts, arguing, and attracting a lot of publicity. Ultimately, however, Bush finally claimed the Presidential Seat.

"In my opinion..." Cody Berger disagrees that Bush is better and feels Gore is the man for the job.

THE ORCHESTRAS WERE ALL "STRUNG" UP THIS WEEK AS THEY PREPARED FOR AND PERFORMED IN THEIR CONCERT. HOWEVER, SOME STUDENTS AT SVHS WERE COMPLETELY "UNSTRUNG" AS THEY WORKED ON COMPLETING IMPORTANT SCHOLARSHIPS OR EVEN JUST THE REGULAR OLD CRASH OF HOMEWORK. BEING PASSED AROUND THE SCHOOL WERE SOME "DRUNK" GOGGLES THAT DISTORT IMAGES AROUND YOU. STUDENTS HAVE A GREAT TIME MAKING FUN OF PEOPLE RUNNING INTO GARBAGE CANS OR TRIPPING OVER THEIR OWN FEET.

So, that's how you do it!! Kyle Weber and Tyler Stromberg eagerly watch the instructor's work at a Wyoming Technology in Education Conference in Casper.

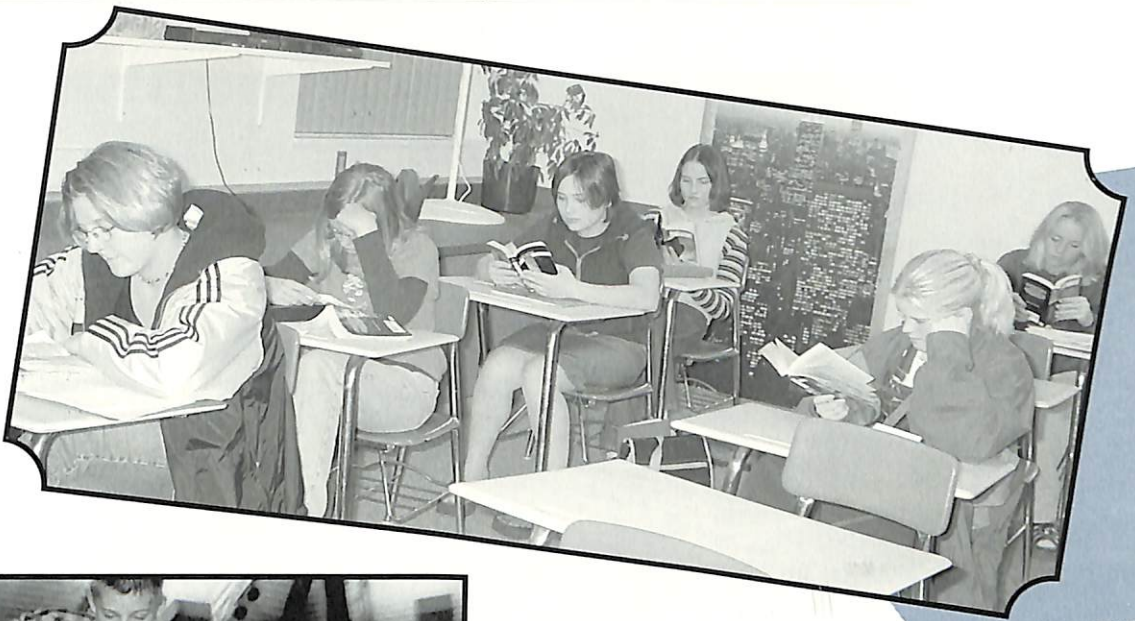

Admiring Glances...The three Lovestruck Jewish daughters were Kim Call, Katie Goulding, and Stephanie Williams. Their "untraditional" suitors were Joseph Shumway, Shane Hokanson, and Eric Clark.

Casting a Grin...the actors and actresses in "Fiddler on the Roof" are: (Row 1) Chris M, Karen G, Shannon M, Jessica J, Karrienne F, Curtis C, RaNette H, Amory S, Kyrie W, Jesse W, William S, Colter H, Nicolina E, Justin B, Amy A, (Row 2) Richard S, Mitzi C, Joseph S, Holly M, Stephanie W, Skyler T, Katie G, Kim C, Zeb L, Eric C, Joakim H, Nathan V, JR B, (Row 3) Jenni A, Melissa E, Keri T, Lacey S, Stephanie T, Bryan E, Jared H, Shane H, Sarah J, Shalynn M, Liz M, Lindsey C, Rani P, Blake H, Kdee J, Amber H, Alicia S, Lindsey H, Krista W, Mary E, Wendy W, Melody C, Rebecca W, Kara H, Jessica C, Amanda C, Autumn R, Emily C, and Jenna A.

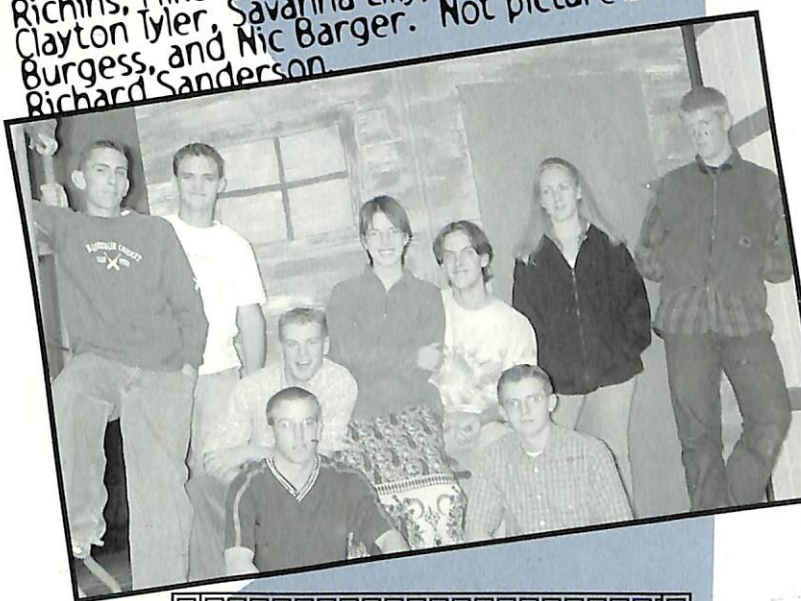

Reading Keenly...Francie Thompson, Bianca Brock, Holly Heiner, Heather Heiner, Emily Heiner, and Shaleen Jackson enjoy a silent moment of independent study.

Balancing Act...Casey Tippetts(Jr. High), Eric Clark, J.R. Burgess, Joseph Shumway, Nathan Vinson, and Curtis Cleverly make a topsy human pyramid at the "Fiddler" cast party.

Behind the Scenes...The artists of the musical's magnificent scenery are: Derek Richins, Mike Onkes, Wes Newell, Molly Dean, Clayton Tyler, Savanna Lilly, McKay Wood, J.R. Burgess, and Nic Barger. Not pictured: Richard Sanderson.

Captured Acting... Mitzi Crook (the Matchmaker) advises the Jewish couple, Skyler Tippetts and Holly Mower not to break tradition. The Fiddler, Lacey Smith, woos them from behind.

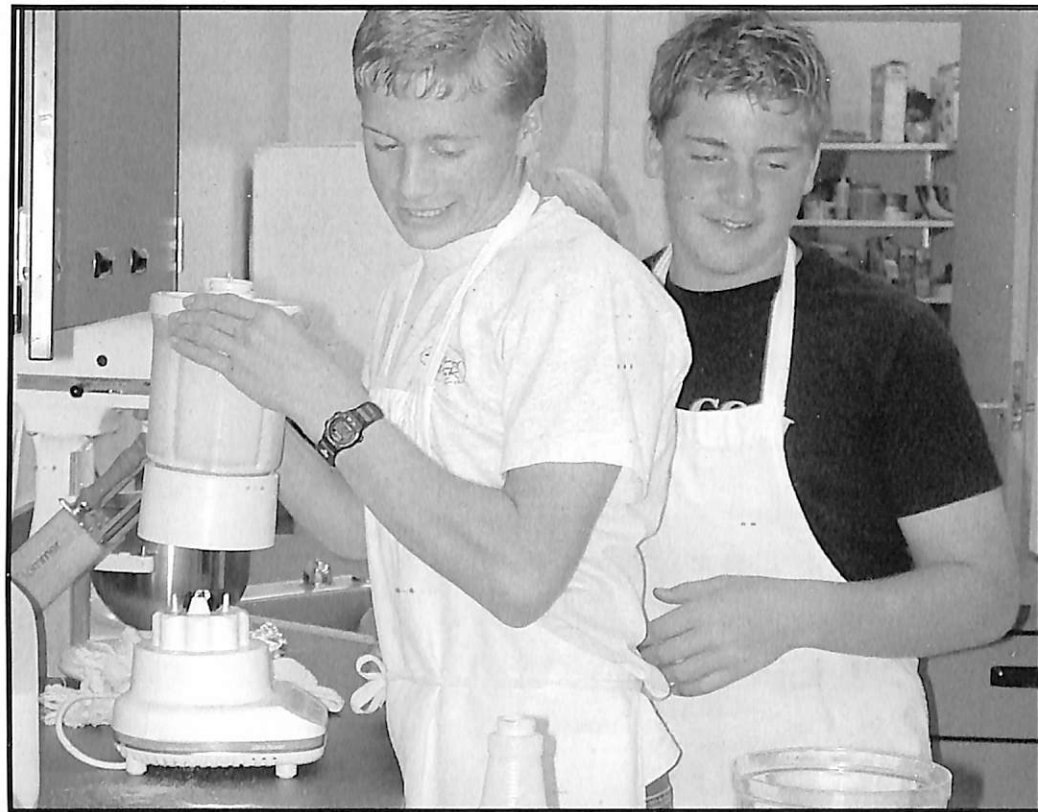

SVHS was definitely exposed to some culture this year. The strict customs of the Jews hit home to us all as we watched the 70-person cast perform the musical "Fiddler On The Roof" Friday, Saturday, and the following Monday. It was excellent! They received great praise for their acting and singing from both young and old. HOLLYWOOD HERE WE COME!
2 boys from SV also expanded their horizons when they went to a technology conference held in Casper, WY.

FEELING THE HEAT

Sizzlin'!! Clay Broadhead shows his stuff while strutting down the hall.

Lookin' for the opening... Denik Brower watches for an open man while skillfully dribbling around his opponent.

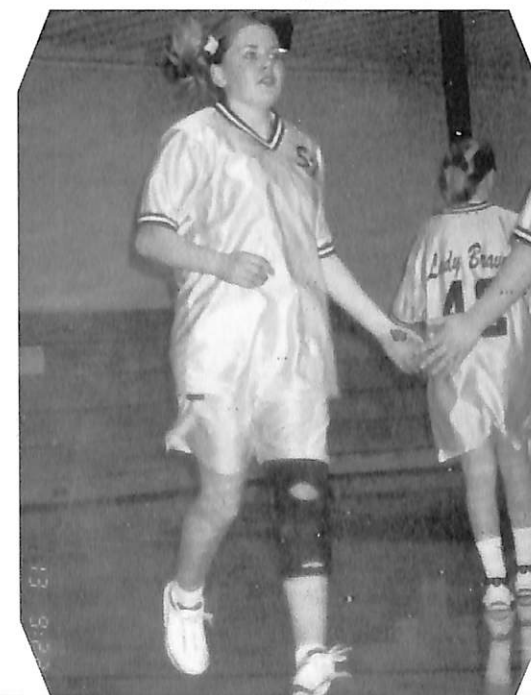

Feeling the Power... Daryl Fluckiger races to his place during the pre-game warmup before playing Rocks Springs.

Inches from victory... Tyson Hepworth lunges for the ball to keep it away from his Jackson opponents.

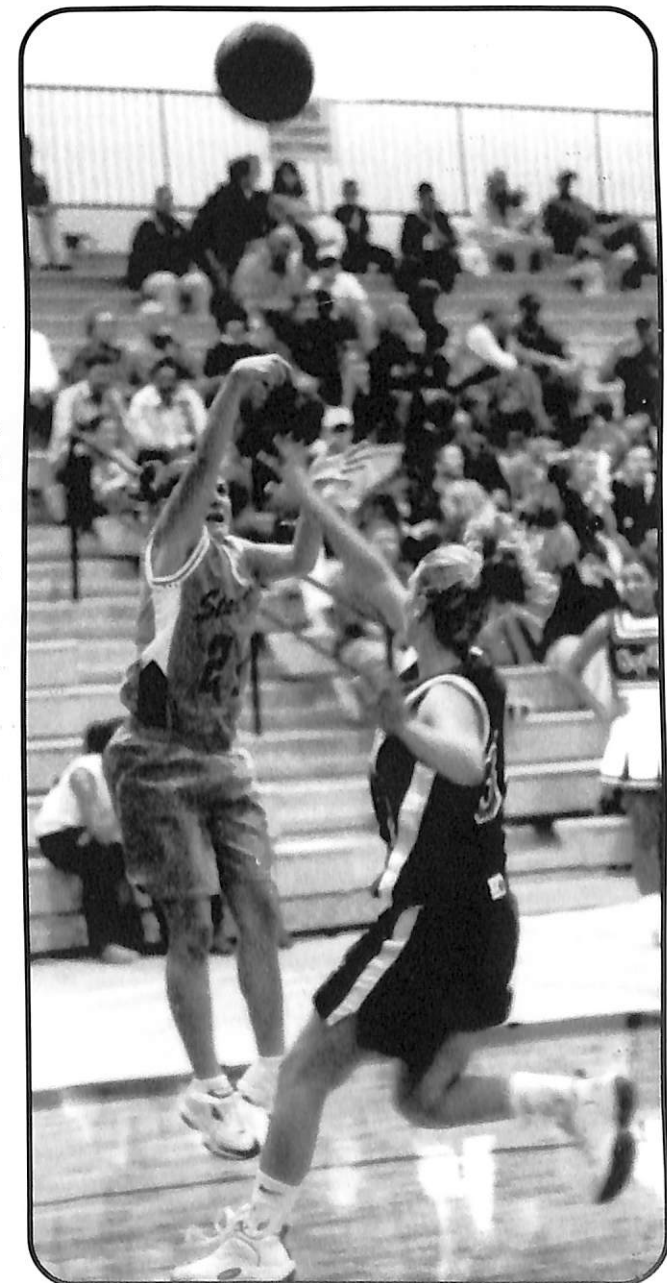

THE STEAMIN' SHOT... KENDRA HADERLIE LEAPS UP TO SHOOT THE BALL OVER THE OPPONENT'S HEAD.

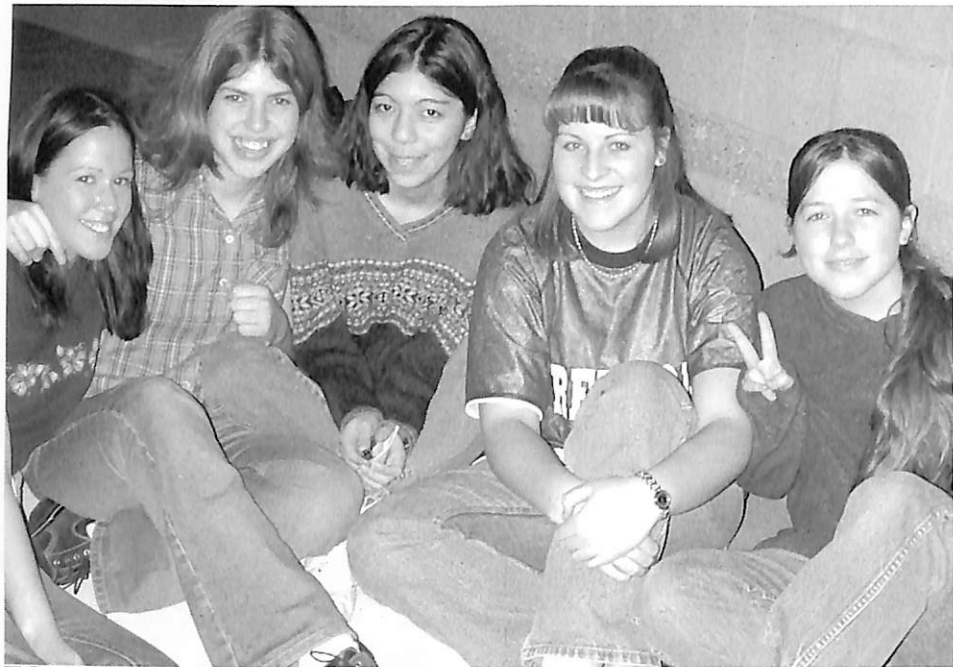

We Can Do it!! Ashley Lancaster rushes in to make some points for the team! Ashley said, "Honestly, the best part about basketball for me was the friendships I made."

The basketball teams really felt the heat this week as they lined up against Rock Springs (home) and Green River (away). Both of these teams are in the 4A division so, coincidentally, they were very challenging games.

FOREVER FRIENDS... Shannon Mills, Sarah Jolley, Stacey Sato, Mallory Luthi, and Candi Sanderson lounge in the hall. We don't know how they feel about basketball, but they do like being friends.

NO FEAR....Duncan Tyler prepares to open a can of whoop-tooshy on his Lyman opponent at Star Valley's home tournament.

PASSING ON.... Billy Kennington passes the ball in hopes of getting two points!

WITH ALL THE RADIANCE OF SUNSHINE.. Demetria Jensen, Korrine Anderson, and Emily Dunn are friends, if they weren't would they be hugging in the hallways? Sheesh!

No one can underestimate the importance of BODY LANGUAGE! It's how we live; it's how we communicate. Maybe athletes use this to get the better of their opponents, but friends at SVHS use it to show they care!

A break from the instrument... Demetria Jensen, Sandra Ferris, Chelsea Johnson, and Trish Ludwick take a breather in their Chamber Orchestra class.

Shimmering poses... Katie Erickson leads Alison Aagard and the other Brave Cadettes in a Star Valley tradition of dance excellence.

Aiming for perfection... Daryl Fluckiger pulls up for the shot against Powell.

The Brave Cadettes, Cheerleaders, and Basketball players all performed for us this week.

With their exactness and professionalism, the Brave Cadettes are showing that they can match up anyday with last year's State-winning Brave Cadettes.

The Cheerleaders are always successful in getting the crowds to go wild!

"If we were all able to be ourselves and step out of our comfort zones, can you imagine how crazy this place would be?"

The little details that yield triumphs and masterpieces are only found in the shadows, where not many people see them. So it is with the orchestra. We, the audience, don't always see what it takes for them to produce such a sound, but we do get to enjoy the finished product.
The members of the Champions club are also setting themselves up for success. We all know that abstinence from drugs will be extremely beneficial in the end.

Miss Wyoming came to our school for an assembly this week. She had students participate in an object lesson meant to show that sometimes we do things that harm us just to make us seem tough or cool. She had a few boys and girls come up and stick their hand in a bucket full of ice and rock salt. She told them they didn't have to do it, that it would hurt a lot, and that some people had gotten severe injuries in the past from doing this. Like the misguided students we are, all of her helpers stuck their hand in for a full minute, proving her point.

As Senior Class President, Brad Barger introduces Rulon Gardner.

IF YOU BELIEVE IT, YOU CAN DO IT....

Rulon Gardner (guest speaker) shares with the seniors words of hope and wisdom that made him successful.

IT HIT ME RIGHT IN THE FOREHEAD...

Lacey Smith gives the class her hard earned knowledge: Some things hurt, but we can be better because of them.

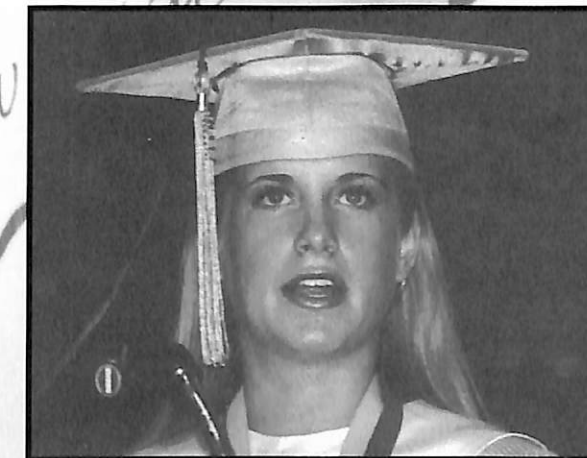

Moving on to the next chapter of their lives, the senior class had their graduation ceremony on May 23, 2001. The graduation march was played by the symphonic band. Speeches were given by the two Co-Valedictorians, Emily Kunz and Ty Jensen, and Co-Saludictorians, Camille Porter and Lacey Smith. Olympic champion Rulon Gardner was the guest speaker.

A DREAM IS LIKE A RIVER...

Kellie Scherbel, Stephanie Wilson, Tara Jelouchan, Jake Day, Joseph Shumway, and Eric Clark sing the verses to the class song while the rest fill in the chorus.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES...

Always one to step up to a challenge, Camille Porter inspires her peers.

THE FUTURE, STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

Ty Jensen re-news the masses' hope for the future, provided they work for it.

One memory I will never forget...

"Is how me and some of my friends were lacking clothing below the waist during graduation (It was a little breezy) ha ha."
Tate Thompson

"NEVER LISTEN TO THE MUSNTS..."

Says Emily Kunz, co-valedictorian.

THE FINAL HOORAH

LAYOUT BY

Seniors, where will you be in 5 years?

Cory Hepworth says, "I'll be broken up in a hospital from bull riding!"

GOOD

Kristi
Bowers says, "I'll be married to Spencer."

Amory Simpson says, "I'll be an elementary teacher, unless the kids are all bigger than me
and beat me up!"

Mckay Wood says,
"I'll be in prison
for murder!"

Daniel
Barnes says,
"I'll be a circus clown."

Spencer Allred says,
"I'll be in a barn somewhere, smashing cans
on my head."
